

PECULIAR BURIAL AT MORRISVILLE

The Grave Was Dug While a Heavy Storm Was Raging.

WAGON COVER OVER DIGGERS

Awe-Inspiring Services in Dunkard Church While Rain Poured.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) MORRISVILLE, Va., June 2.—Ann E. Hughtell, whose home was near this place, where the family had lived for generations, died of paralysis on May 28th, about sixty years of age, after a short illness, at the home of her son, Fleet Hughtell, of Washington city.

Mr. Fleet Hughtell decided to have his mother's body laid to rest beside her husband's in the cemetery of the Morrisville Methodist Episcopal Church, but, through an unfortunate misunderstanding, those in charge of the burial here made arrangements to have the funeral services held in the church and the interment of the body to take place at the old homestead, where a grave was dug on the morning of May 31st, beside the grave of Mrs. Hughtell's mother.

It was after 1 o'clock, the appointed hour for the funeral, before Fleet Hughtell arrived with his mother's corpse. When he learned what had been done, the son insisted upon a return to the original programme. Then there was a hurried hunt for picks, spades and shovels, and Morrisville witnessed a spectacle it never beheld before, two graves dug for one body in one day.

The digging of a new grave necessarily delayed the funeral exercises, and in the meantime the heavy rain grew blacker, great jagged streaks of lightning seemed to rent the sky in twain, and the rain fell in torrents, until the streets resembled miniature rivers and lakes. A frame was erected, and a large wagon tent spread over it for the grave diggers to work under. Many people seeing the approaching storm hurried home, but the large audience that remained to the last bore witness to the many friends possessed by the woman whose body rested in the church awaiting burial.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Unusually Large Turn Out in Parade at Lexington.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LEXINGTON, Va., June 2.—Confederate Memorial Day was fittingly observed here to-day, the largest crowd ever known being in attendance. State Senator Don P. Halsey, of Lynchburg, delivered an eloquent address in the chapel of Washington and Lee University. An interesting feature of the exercises was the presentation of bronze crosses of honor to one hundred and thirty old Confederate soldiers, one hundred and ten members of Lee-Jackson Camp of Lexington, and twenty members of Blue Ridge Camp of Buena Vista, presented by the Mary Custis Lee Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, of Lexington.

Following the chapel exercises a procession was formed, which marched to the cemetery, where the soldiers' graves were decorated. The graves of Generals Robert E. Lee and General Stonewall Jackson received special attention.

The procession was composed of the cadets of the Virginia Military Institute, old Confederates, Sons of Confederates and Sunday school children.

STOUT SHERIFF.

To Go to Court to Make Him Change Election Day.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) MANASSAS, Va., June 2.—Judge C. E. Nichol to-day heard a petition of the town of Leesburg, asking for a mandamus to compel Eugene Monroe, sheriff of Loudoun county, to post notice of an election for Mayor and councilmen for Leesburg for the month of June. Mr. Monroe was of the opinion that the date was the proper time for holding the election, and had posted notice for that date.

Harrison—Sledd.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) POWHATAN, Va., June 2.—The home of Mr. R. H. Sledd was the scene of a beautiful marriage at 9:30 o'clock last evening, when Miss Carrie Elizabeth Sledd became the bride of Mr. Edmund Harrison. The minister of the Gospel, Mr. Maguire, was officiating. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Harrison, of Danville, Va. The groom is a prominent business man of Ohio. A most bountiful supper was served at 12 o'clock to a large crowd. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison left on the noon train today for a short bridal tour. The personal popularity of Miss Sledd and her fiancé rendered the wedding a most interesting social event.

Murphy—Smith.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WINCHESTER, Va., June 2.—Robert M. Murphy, a prominent farmer of Lincoln county, and Miss Augusta Smith, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Smith, of Lenoir, this country, were married at the home of the bride last night, the bride's father officiating.

Harris—Dickinson.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., June 2.—Mr. Kelley Harris, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Alice Pearl Dickinson, daughter of Mrs. M. J. Dickinson, of this city, were married at 8 o'clock last evening at the home of Mrs. Davis, the Rev. John B. Turpin officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Harris took the early morning train for Washington.

A RICHMOND WOMAN ASKS "have you a floor paint that will last two weeks?" Yes we have Devco's. It has a beautiful gloss and will wear two years. A sample applied. Harris Hardware Company.

MILK CRUST ON BABY

Lost All His Hair. Scratched Till Blood Ran. Grateful Mother Tells of His CURE BY CUTICURA FOR 75c.

"When our baby boy was three months old, he had the milk crust very badly on his head, so that all his hair came out, and it itched so bad he would scratch until the blood ran. I got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. I applied the Cuticura and put a thin cap on his head, and before I had used half of the box it was entirely cured, his hair commenced to grow out nicely again, and he has had no return of the trouble. (Signed) Mrs. H. P. Holmes, Ashland, Or."

BELL FOR BATTLE SHIP MISSOURI

Westerners Depart From a Traditional Custom.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEWPORT NEWS, Va., June 2.—A large party of Miss J. Cabanne, of Old Point, to-day, bringing a handsome bell, which is to be presented to the battleship Missouri to-morrow by Miss Julia Cabanne, of St. Louis, on behalf of the people of Missouri. The party is headed by S. Norvell, chairman of the presentation committee, and the members are: Mrs. Norvell, Miss Cabanne, W. H. Caffee, Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Drake, Walker Hill, Leonard Mathews, Miss Mathews, F. L. Ridgely, Miss Ada Dirge, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gordon and T. H. Tilley. To-night the party entertained the officers of the Missouri at dinner at the Chamberlin Hotel.

The Missouri, with the other ships of the battleship squadron, returned to Old Point from the southern drill grounds to-day.

CHASE CITY NEWS.

Mr. Frank B. Roberts Candidate for the State Senate.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHASE CITY, Va., June 2.—Mr. Frank B. Roberts, of Chase City, has announced himself a candidate to represent the district composed of Mecklenburg and Brunswick counties in the next Senate of Virginia, submitted to the Democratic primary. Mr. Roberts was for several terms mayor of Chase City and county chairman of the Democratic party, and is now supervisor for this district. He is an unflinching Democrat, an untiring worker and will give his competitors with the nomination a lively race for the honors.

Prof. Thomas W. Smith, formerly county superintendent of public schools for Mecklenburg, has returned from the mountains of Virginia, where he has been with the hope of a restoration of health. He derived but little benefit from his sojourn, and is still feeble and confined to his home here.

Mr. William Hugh Carter, editor of the Chase City Progress, was this week ordained to the full work of the Gospel ministry of the Baptist Church. The ministers officiating in the ordination were Rev. Dr. J. W. Dyches, Rev. W. G. King and Rev. H. T. Williams, and Deacons T. F. Pettus, J. R. Pruden and A. J. Yancy.

Rev. H. T. Pettus has raised $1,500 of the $2,000 he undertook to get for the Concord Association to relieve it of debt. He now says if the churches of the Concord Association will furnish the necessary $500 to liquidate the debt, then he will get enough from other sources to furnish the buildings with complete equipment for next session.

Captain Stephen P. Read has announced his candidacy to succeed himself in the next House of Delegates as the representative from Mecklenburg. It is not probable that he will have opposition.

COAL AT CAPE.

Plan for Breakwater and Terminals There.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, Va., June 2.—It is denied here that either the Tidewater Railway or the Seaboard Air Line Railway are the purchasers of the Norfolk and Southern coal fields, but it is reported that the real purchasers of the latter road are closely allied with the Seaboard. The names of Messrs. Ryan and Coolidge, of the Seaboard directorate, are prominently mentioned in connection with the Norfolk and Southern purchase, and it is declared in some quarters that the purpose is to give the Seaboard valuable deep water coal terminals at Cape Henry, Va., to which point the Norfolk and Southern has modern tracks out from Norfolk. The Seaboard has just bought valuable coal lands, and to have coal terminals at the Cape would mean the saving of twelve hours for ships, which now have to come to Lambert's Point for coal. It is proposed to have the government build a breakwater at the Cape, and this would give the Seaboard highly valuable coal terminals, the railroad to those to be established at Southport, near Wilmington, N. C.

CABBAGE ADRIFT.

Hampton Roads Beach Strewn With Rotting Vegetables.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, Va., June 2.—A mass of cabbage, loose and in barrels, strewed the shores along Hampton Roads where the cottages and resorts are. They are rotting and becoming offensive to the residents and the visitors. It is a great puzzle. The cabbage came from the cargo of the steamer Hamilton, which caught fire and returned here after starting to New York with a great cargo of vegetables, cotton and tobacco. The cabbage was dumped in Hampton Roads, and the tide brought them to the shore.

A Tablet to Poe.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., June 2.—From the Alderman of the University of Virginia, has received a letter from Miss Bangs, one of the co-principals of the National Cathedral School, near Washington, offering to place a bronze memorial tablet on the floor of Poe's old room, No. 13, West Range. The tablet will be decorated with Greek letters, and will bear the following inscription:

Edgar Allan Poe. MDCXXXVI. Domus Parva Poetae Magni. Dr. Alderman has accepted the gift, and the tablet will be put in place in the near future.

OCEAN VIEW AND PINE BEACH ROAD

Capitalist to Furnish Money for Line and String of Houses.

TO INVITE THE PRESIDENT

Wealthy Rappahannock Truckers Seek a Boat Line to Norfolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, Va., June 2.—A syndicate has been formed here for building an electric railway to connect the two summer resorts, Ocean View and Pine Beach. The distance is five miles, but capital will be pledged to the amount of $300,000 for the purpose of building hotels and cottages along the line.

The Norfolk police have been asked to search for J. W. Fleming, who has disappeared from Portsmouth, and about whom his friends have become anxious. He is 35 years old, weighs 175 pounds and is 5 feet tall. Fleming is a stranger on a visit here for his health.

TRUCKERS' LINE.

Several wealthy truckers from the Rappahannock river farms are here conferring with capitalists and practical mariners men as to the feasibility of starting new steamers between the trucking stations on the river and Norfolk and Baltimore. They express great dissatisfaction with the present transportation. They wish an opposition to the Weems steamers.

C. B. Swearingen obtained an injunction in the Court of Law and Chancery to-day to stop a suit of dispossession against him in the Corporation Court. He alleges that J. W. Murphy, a rival in the saloon business in the same vicinity, conspired with a discharged employee, J. A. Jordan, to change the lease so that it appears to belong to them and not to him, and then they notified Swearingen to leave his own premises and his own goods and saloon fixtures. Both the saloon and the saloon are in Nicholson Street, and the litigants are rivals for the Fourth Ward business.

TO SEE THE PRESIDENT. The Board of Trade will have another meeting on next Thursday to determine whether to send another delegation to Washington to invite President Roosevelt to include Norfolk in the itinerary of the proposed visit to the South.

EPISCOPAL INSTITUTE.

Dr. John L. Lloyd to Make Address to Graduates.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHATHAM, Va., June 2.—The Chatham Episcopal Institute will on Tuesday next close a most successful year. The number of students exceed any year of the past, and this, coupled with the necessary improvements made in the water supply and building of the new hall, closes the most successful year in the history of the institute since its establishment. The commencement exercises will begin Friday night, June 2d, with the "Oratorio and Physical Recital," which will open with an exhibition of physical training and close with the drama, "As You Like It," from Shakespeare.

Tuesday morning, June 6th, the commencement exercises proper take place. Salutatory, with essay, "The Influence of a Book," Miss Susan Soaper Young. Essay, with valedictory, "Gratitude," Miss Christine McRae. Address to graduates, Dr. John L. Lloyd.

Graduates—Literary course: Miss Susan Soaper Young, Miss Christine McRae. Art: Miss Georgia Tatlo O'Keefe. Oratory: Miss Lucille Foster. Business Course: Miss Earnestine Frank, Miss Florence Dennis.

EPISCOPAL WOMEN.

Meeting of Auxiliary to the Diocese in Wytheville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WYTHEVILLE, Va., June 2.—The Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Southern Virginia began its session, presided over by Miss Julia Taylor, of Norfolk, to-day at 10 o'clock, in the parish house of St. John's Church. Miss Taylor read her annual report of the work done by the auxiliary during the past year, and Rev. H. St. George Tucker, missionary to Japan, made an able and interesting address on the use of maps.

Mr. William A. Anderson, of Lexington, was elected secretary, vice Mrs. Ravenel, deceased. The present officers were re-elected. An elegant luncheon was served by the ladies of St. John's Church.

MR. GALT CALLED.

Dr. Thomas Wilson Page Building a Fine Barn.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) OFFLEY, Va., June 2.—Rev. Alexander Galt, who some time ago accepted a call to this St. Martin's parish, here, has just returned and will hold his first service next Sunday at Fork Church.

Dr. Thomas Wilson Page is on a visit to his mother at Oakland. The doctor is having a fine barn built on his farm, "Mont Air." Work is being pushed on the new telephone line from here to Ashland.

Jail Delivery.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RICHMOND, Va., June 2.—Two prisoners, one a white boy, about seventeen years of age, named James Chatham, alias Charles C. Harvey, and the other, named Veldon Williamson, escaped from the county jail yesterday. Both parties have a creditable record. A reward for their arrest is offered.

Keep Your Inside Eye on Our Window For Style Changes.

BROKE HIS NECK BY A FALL FROM A TREE

Foreman of Mines Attempts to Cut His Own Throat.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LOUISA, Va., June 2.—Mr. Elias White, an elderly white man, who lives near Bill's Cross Roads, this county, while gathering berries yesterday, fell from the tree and broke his neck.

Mr. Andrew Berryman, head foreman of the Armeton mines, at Mineral, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat early this morning. He has been in bad health for a few weeks, and it was supposed he was suffering from some temporary mental derangement.

While the wounds inflicted on himself are not fatal, his condition otherwise is considered critical.

NEW HEADQUARTERS.

All in Fine Spirits and Make Splendid Claims.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NOTTOWAY COURTHOUSE, Va., June 2.—Much activity is seen around the political headquarters of Judge Mann in this quiet old building while his corps of stenographers are not doing much talking nor giving out much news, they are wearing the cheerful men and seem confident of victory. The judge's mail is simply enormous, each train bringing in great quantities of letters from every part of the State, assuring him that his calling and election will be sure.

The judge has spent the last few days in Southwest Virginia, speaking in Salem, Bristol, Abingdon, Wytheville and Pulaski, and leaving an ovation at almost every place.

Letters received at his headquarters indicate that he is making many converts and may expect as the result of his trip over that portion of the State great gains over anything his friends here positively anticipated.

Those in a position to know say the Confederate Veterans have accorded him marked attention at several points, where it was known he was of this number, and indicating a point to a strong support from this source.

The judge will speak next week at many points in the Valley of Virginia, where his candidacy is meeting with strong approval.

SCHOOLS CLOSE.

Bethel Military Academy and Fauquier Female Institute.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—Bethel Military Academy closed to-day, after an unusually successful session. Cadet Ripley Robinson, of Warrenton, was awarded a scholarship medal; Cadet W. B. Packett, of Charleston, Va., a medal for the best soldier; and Captain H. W. Lewis, of Company A, was presented with a gold medal. A ball was held in the drill pavilion to-night.

Fauquier Female Institute also closed last night. A special feature of the exercises was the splendid work of the physical culture class, under the direction of Miss Margaret Humes, Miss Mary Sowers, Miss Moel and Miss Helen Walraven.

Crops and Politics.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) MANTO, Va., June 2.—The cold weather that has obtained in this section practically all spring still continues, and the late season, with the advance of the ground, has rendered it a hard matter to get a good start with planting. Several very heavy rains have further complicated the work, and the crop conditions are now satisfactory, and all corn is planted and tobacco being set rapidly.

The wheat and the oat crop promise more than for some years past, and the wheat is beginning to ripen. The straw is short, but vigorous, and the heads are well filled up.

All araises for moving have improved greatly in the last few days. It is generally believed that the crop will be up to the average. The political situation here is not active. Each candidate for the general State offices has a creditable following, and this is further borne out by the fact that the Governor's headquarters are now in the hands of the candidates.

In the gubernatorial race not so much interest seems to be shown as in the past. Mr. Henry Taylor, of Warrenton, is seriously ill, but is reported to be somewhat better.

Oak Park Institute.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) TWYMAN'S MILLS, Va., June 2.—The commencement exercises of the Oak Park Female Institute were held last night, closing a most successful term of the school. There were three graduates—Miss Eva Berry, Miss Mary Rosser and Miss Emma Rosser.

Rev. C. F. Comer delivered the diploma and distinguished Mr. James E. Thrift, Commonwealth's attorney, made the address of the evening. The Madison string band furnished delightful music.

WILL INVITE THE PRESIDENT

Will Be Asked to Meet Grand Camp in Petersburg.

COMMITTEE TO WASHINGTON

Reede, the Check Flasher, is Also Wanted in Richmond.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, Va., June 2.—President Roosevelt will be invited to visit Petersburg on his Southern tour next October, while the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia is meeting here. The A. P. Hill Camp is making great preparations for the entertainment of the Grand Camp, including a reproduction of the battle of the Crater, which the President will be invited to attend.

A joint committee from the Board of Aldermen, City Council and A. P. Hill Camp will go to Washington to present the invitation. Messrs. George Cameron, Simon Seward, Nelson Patterson, T. S. Beckwith and Captain Carter R. Bishop compose the committee.

TOULMINSON SIZES HIM UP.

Captain Toulminson, of the Richmond detective force, took a view of J. C. Reede, the bogus check passer, at the jail this morning. Reede acknowledged using a false check in Richmond, which, it is understood, was given to O. H. Berry and Company, but claims that the check deposited here at the Virginia National Bank was given to him by a friend named Allen R. Winsor, to whom many of the checks found in Reede's valise were payable. The police consider Winsor an imaginary party, probably an alias. The accused man says that his father is dead and refuses to tell the home of his mother, because of his desire to spare her the knowledge of his wrong-doing. In the Mayor's Court this morning Reede's case was continued until June 12th.

AGAIN POSTPONED.

The mayor's hearing of the case of James W. Cooke, charged with robbing W. B. Brown's drug store, has been further postponed until next Wednesday. The case was to have come up to-morrow. Cooke is still in jail.

Judge Mullen this evening overruled the motion to set aside the jury's verdict for the plaintiff in the $1,000 suit of Mrs. Helen M. Hoge, of Prince George county, against the Virginia Fire and Marine Insurance Company for insurance on four hundred bags of peanuts.

Mr. Bernard Mann made a lengthy argument that the verdict be set aside, because of wrong instructions to the jury. Mr. Mann says that he will take the case to the Court of Appeals.

SUES THE CITY.

A $3,500 damage suit against the city of Petersburg has been instituted in the Circuit Court by Major F. R. Lassiter, who claims that the presence of the city's new smallpox hospital, recently erected very near the boundary of his suburban farm, Birdville, has materially injured the prospects of selling a number of lots on his farm.

The suit will not be heard at the next term of the Circuit Court, which begins June 5th.

MARTIN IS SATISFIED WITH THE OUTLOOK

Stops in Washington On Way to Winchester to Attend Wedding.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—Senator Martin and Mrs. Martin were in Washington for a short time to-day on their way to Winchester to attend the Russell-Brown marriage. Senator Martin arrived this morning, and Mrs. Martin this afternoon. The senator stopped at the Raleigh, where he was called on by a number of friends, who wished to hear him discuss the campaign in Virginia.

Representative Swanson is in the city, and Representative Hay and Representative Flood were also here. The latter accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Martin to Winchester. Colonel Joseph Button is here, and Colonel Dan Trigg, of Abingdon, another well-known Virginia politician who is in the city to-day. With the exception of Mr. Swanson, they all saw Senator Martin while he was here and discussed politics for a time.

Senator Martin said he did not care to discuss the gubernatorial campaign, but that he was satisfied with the outlook. He spoke in Botetourt county, at Fincastle, yesterday. He said he was gratified at the cordiality of his reception. He will speak at Lexington, in Rockbridge, the adjoining county, next Monday evening.

Mr. Swanson will speak at Manassas to-morrow on the occasion of a Confederate memorial celebration. He is swamped with correspondence, but he will be in the city to-morrow.

Representative Hay will make a memorial address at Old Chapel, Clarke county, to-morrow. "I believe there is little doubt, if any, that Senator Martin will carry over the county in the Seventh District," he said.

Although Governor Montague passed through Washington Wednesday on his way to Mount Jackson, Shenandoah county, to make an address yesterday, he did not leave the railroad station, where he waited three-quarters of an hour for his train.
